

Architect Pramod Jain graduated in Architecture in 1974 from VRCE, Nagpur, and pursued postgraduate studies in Planning from SPA, New Delhi in 1978. With vast experience spanning five decades both domestically and internationally, he has become a visionary force in the field. Boasting 50 years of architectural expertise, Pramod Jain has played a pivotal role in numerous iconic projects. His portfolio ranges from city development to a plethora of government buildings, institutional projects, convention centers, auditoriums, universities, hospitals, schools, and various sports pavilions. Additionally, his involvement in the restoration and conservation of heritage buildings has added to his distinguished career.